

Meet Drabwell's Cheshunt squad

ONE player who will be missing from the Cheshunt line-up tomorrow is veteran Les Picking, their former England international. Picking is on a week's suspension for three bookings this season. No less than six of the Cheshunt squad, managed by John Drabwell, are 20 years old or younger.

Dave O'Neill (goalkeeper)—Joined from junior football towards the end of last season. An Irishman, Dave is aged 20 and has played in 24 first team games.

Mel Bevens (defender)—Aged 24, he is now in his sixth season with the club and the current captain. Cheshunt, for whom he has played 226 games, has been his only senior club.

Tommy Dillon (defender)—Brother of Spurs professional Mick Dillon, he joined at the start of the season after being an amateur with both Spurs and Orient. Aged 18, he has represented Cheshunt 27 times and scored two goals.

Dave Sharkey (defender)—Joined from Hillingdon Borough in 1967 but left to join Bishops Cleeve in 1970. Rejoined at the beginning of the season, went to St. Albans, but soon came back. 179 games and 12 goals.

Ted Marjoram (defender)—Cheshunt, whom he has served for five years, has been his only club apart from a short spell at Hornchurch. He has played 171 first team games.

John Cerasoli (mid-field)—One of manager John Drabwell's new signings this season. Came from Ilford, where he was in the side that defeated Wycombe 2-1 in September.

George Berryman (mid-field)—An 18-year-old, who recently joined after a four year spell with Leytonstone.

John Poole (mid-field)—Four years ago he became the youngest player ever to wear the Cheshunt shirt. Now 19, he has notched 14 goals in 104 games. Son of the club's vice-chairman.

David Cooper—Another 19 year old, he established his place in the side last season. Altogether has played 33 games and scored two goals.

Keith Schofield (mid-field)—In his third season with the club, he has still to claim a regular spot. Has scored one goal in 17 first team appearances. Still only 19.

Nick O'Donoghue (striker)—Joined from junior football towards the end of last season. Aged 20, he has scored seven goals in 30 games.

Peter Twigg (striker)—Former club ballboy, who started playing for the first team two years ago. A 20 year old, he has been a consistent performer with 21 goals in 54 games.

Mel Lawrence (striker)—Third of the new signings this season. Came from Enfield but has played in only three games.
